

Meryl Rudy

Singer/Songwriter

merylrudy.com

merylrudy@gmail.com

About Meryl:

Meryl Rudy is a Nashville-based indie/folk-jazz singer/songwriter, musician, and producer. Some of her biggest influences are Madison Cunningham, Theo Katzman, David Wimbish & The Collection, The Beatles, and Ed Sheeran. In the last few years, Meryl released a series of Featuring EPs. These EPs are collections of Meryl's original music featuring different artists to highlight the various voices and genres for which she specializes in writing. Meryl performs around Nashville acoustic, and with her five-piece band. She frequents writer's rounds and is actively writing and recording new music.

Listen to Meryl's Music:

Upcoming Projects:

Meryl's single, Comfortable Love (feat. Meghan Garrison), will be available to stream on September 26th. This is the first single off the fourth installment of her Featuring EPs; the full project coming out early November.

